

Barbie in the Plastic Surgery Waiting room

Andrew Leger

“From astronaut to zookeeper she's done it all (almost) But does Barbie's casting in a major motion picture spell farewell for Mattel's golden goose?”

That's the kind of rubbish I read in insider I'd heard I made the cover should've listened closer I made the little bubble in the little corner of a great big magazine.

It's all gossip
It's freezing in here

I'll use that as inspiration; the part is a Russian spy
A Russian spy with a Russia-sized nose
My Handler begged me to go with prosthetics-Ken had no say- I'm the star

I'm not one to cheat my way to the top
I'm not one to cry Wolf or run chicken or play dead

Vogue says my modeling days are over I melt my sides till they bend
Reshape Trim my toes and add a millimeter of height for the W.N.B.A.

and spend $20,000 on a costume piece for a movie prop
I dread the next hour and long for the final cut Astronaut to zookeeper
A star in a cage
